

Storm Water Challenge

Questions		Answers
1. Rain water that lands on streets, lawns, farms, and industrial sites is called:	<input type="checkbox"/>	a) Waste water
	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	b) Storm water
	<input type="checkbox"/>	c) Drinking Water
2. Which answer best describes waters that can be disposed into storm drains?	<input type="checkbox"/>	a) Power washing waters, extra irrigation water, rain water.
	<input type="checkbox"/>	b) Car wash water, irrigation water, rain water.
	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	c) Rain water only.
3. Storm water that runs off from the Port of Redwood City flows to:	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	a) San Francisco Bay
	<input type="checkbox"/>	b) The sewer
	<input type="checkbox"/>	c) Nearby parking lots
4. If you poured a single quart of motor oil into a storm drain, how large an oil slick would be created in San Francisco Bay?	<input type="checkbox"/>	a) 0 acres. The oil would be captured at a treatment plant.
	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	b) 2 acres. The oil would harm the environment.
	<input type="checkbox"/>	c) 1 acre. The oil would naturally dissipate.
4. Which answer best describes storm water pollutants?	<input type="checkbox"/>	a) Excess fertilizers, pet droppings, yard clippings.
	<input type="checkbox"/>	b) Dripped oil, grease, soapy wash water.
	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	c) All of the above (a & b) are storm water pollutants.

If you see water or other substance flowing to a Port storm drain or gutter, please contact the Port of Redwood City at (650) 306-4150.